

Edmonton Daily Bulletin

ALL GERMAN EFFORTS OF PAST FEW DAYS RESULTED ONLY IN BARREN CAPTURE OF DIXMUDE

Enemy Trooper Back on Right Back of Yser Canal—Saturday Was Marked Largely By Artillery Combats—German Attacks, North, East and South of Ypres Repulsed With Heavy Losses—Russians Report That Their Forces Are Making Continued Progress.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15, (11:10 p.m.)—The following official communication was received by the British press: "The most notable incident of the day has been the throwing back of the enemy in the north-east of Ypres. That part of the front which the Germans previously held has been completely evacuated. We have recaptured the enemy's small wood which had been lost following a night attack. At the end of the day the enemy had shown without success an offensive to the south of Ypres. The rest of the front there is holding its position."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

PARIS, Nov. 15, (2:45 p.m.)—The Sunday afternoon French official statement follows: "Yesterday, relatively a quiet day on the whole front, was characterized principally by artillery combats. The Germans, however, again attempted fresh attacks to the north-east of Ypres, and in the morning they were repulsed with considerable losses to them."

ENORMOUS TASK IS STILL PACING THE ALLIED TROOPS. The British Mail's Foreign correspondent writes the British people of the enormous task still facing the allies, and declares that England will do all the troops that it is possible for her to raise.

BRITISH OFFICER GETS GERMAN IRON CROSS FOR BRAVERY. Rescued German Wounded Soldier But Later Suffered From His Own Injuries.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—A Paris dispatch to the Central News says: "During the recent fighting, the German troops after a fierce charge, retreated, carrying off the wounded except one man. A British officer who went out to bring in the wounded man, was himself wounded, but managed to bring the German soldier to shelter where later both were picked up by a German plane."

HON. WM. TEMPLEMAN OF VICTORIA DEAD. He Was One of Grand Old Men of Liberalism in Canada.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—One of the grand old men of liberalism, and one of the ablest statesmen of Canada, was Hon. William Templeman, M.P. for Victoria, who died at his home in London, England, on Sunday, November 15, 1914.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The secretary of the Admiralty announces that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The secretary of the Admiralty announces that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The secretary of the Admiralty announces that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The secretary of the Admiralty announces that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The secretary of the Admiralty announces that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca, and that the British fleet has been ordered to the Straits of Malacca.

WINTER HAS COME TO WAR AREA IN NORTHERN FRANCE AND BELGIUM.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies. The work in the trenches is described as extremely trying and Northern France, they say, seems swept with an epidemic of influenza and other diseases. The wounded brought in show signs of suffering and there are numerous cases of illness among them due to the cold and exposure.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies. The work in the trenches is described as extremely trying and Northern France, they say, seems swept with an epidemic of influenza and other diseases.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 16.—(4:03 a.m.)—According to despatches to the London morning newspapers from their correspondents at the front, the winter weather is having serious effects on the operations of the armies.

ANOTHER VIEW OF SINKING OF SUPERDRAUGHT AFTER SHE HAD STRUCK A MINE IS THAT SHE WAS BLOWN UP BY ORDER OF FLEET COMMANDER.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Two men who saw the British super-draught sink, according to a dispatch from London, say that the ship was blown up by order of the fleet commander after she had struck a mine.

PASSES AWAY IN MIDST OF INDIAN TROOPS WHOM HE WENT TO FRANCE TO VISIT—CONTRACTED A COLD WHICH TURNED TO PNEUMONIA WITH FATAL RESULTS.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

By Bulletin Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 15.—Today's papers comment at length upon the death of Lord Roberts, the British commander-in-chief of the Indian troops, who died in the midst of Indian troops whom he went to France to visit.

